

Sustainable Meat Chickens and Turkeys for Your Homestead

Are you looking for sustainable meat chickens and turkeys? We are now taking orders for 2026 hatching season. Reserve today and save $. Reservations and deposits must be made by March 1, 2026.

Henry Knoll New Hampshire chicken line: Knoll focused on fast development and muscle growth. This particular flock birds has been selected for meat bird qualities for several years. You can have meat birds this summer and keep a production line for next spring.

New Hampshires are fast feathering and show rapid growth. Their colors range from deep red to lighter almost rust, with a deep, broad body. Hens often go broody, and are known for their mothering abilities. New Hampshire hens will grow to about six pounds, while roosters reach approximately 8.5 pounds. They lay large, light-brown eggs—around 200 annually. Hatchings are Unsexed.

Reserve your order today: Buy 20 or more, day-old chicks for $3.00 each. Must reserve by March 1st, 2026. 25% deposit required. Not currently able to ship, but could possibly arrange local delivery for an additional fee. Call or text: 585-880-5721.

Heritage Breed Turkey Barnyard-Mix: Are you interested a sustainable turkey for your homestead? Order your day-old turkey chicks/poults, straight run barnyard-mix of Black Spanish, North American, Royal Palm, Gray Slate, Midget White, and Light Brown Bourbon. These turkeys are easy to keep, friendly and a great free-ranging bird for your homestead. Our average grown tom weight of 16 pounds, with hen weighing an average of 12 pounds. Heritage turkey breeds usually lay around 50-100 eggs a year. Hatchings are Unsexed.

Reserve your order today: Buy 10 or more, day-old poults for $14.00 each. Must reserve by March 1st, 2026. 25% deposit required. Not currently able to ship, but could possibly arrange local delivery for an additional fee. Call or text: 585-880-5721.